

ALEXANDRIA.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 28.

Mr. Samuel Simpson, formerly of Fairfax county, but now sojourning in this city, has just written a brochure on the negro question. In it he takes the ground that owing to the great fecundity of the negro race that race will soon have a majority of the voters, certainly in all the Gulf, and probably in all the other Southern States. He says that political and civil equality must of necessity create an irrepressible and increasing desire on the part of the negroes for social equality, and consequently for miscegenation, but that the gratification of that desire is of course impossible, as nature abhors a mixture of the races, on account of the cannibalistic and other inherent characteristics of the negroes, and as proved by the unprocreantness of the offspring of miscegenation after the second or third generation. The only solution of the question, Mr. Simpson says, is by one of two ways, extermination or expatriation, and as the latter is the more civilized and the less expensive, he recommends it as decidedly preferable. Brazil, Hayti, Jamaica and Africa are the regions to which he would send the negroes, and he calculates that with semi-monthly steamers to each country a half million a year could be removed, at which rate in eighteen years the country would be relieved of the entire race, and with it, of the chief danger with which it is now threatened. There is no doubt that the question referred to will soon become not only an important but an alarming one.

PRESIDENT-ELECT Harrison, in his letter to a South Carolina editor, published in yesterday's GAZETTE, says: "The policies in legislation advised by the republican party I believe are wholesome for the whole country, and if those who in their hearts believe with us upon these questions would act with us, some other questions that give you local concern would settle themselves." This is decidedly oracular. It may be interpreted in various ways, but all to the same purpose. It may mean that Mr. Harrison will endeavor to enforce the republican policy of Mr. Wise and Mr. Cable, that there shall be negro supremacy in all communities, small or large, in which the negroes have a majority of the voters. Or it may mean that Mr. Harrison will leave the race question to "settle itself," if those political anomalies, Southern democratic protectionists, will vote with the negroes, and thereby so weaken the white vote in the Southern States as to do the same thing—turn those States over to the control of ignorant and vicious negroes, and in addition prolong republican rule in national affairs. Mr. Harrison should be more explicit.

THE RECEIPTS from internal revenue last year—for whisky, tobacco and oleomargarine—amounted to nearly one hundred and twenty-five million dollars. That sum, together with the receipts from import duties on luxuries, such as wines, liquors, cigars, jewelry, silks, satins, furs, and velvets, and other articles used by the rich, would be quite sufficient to meet all the expenses of the government. But should there be a deficit, in consequence of the enormous increase in pensions, it could be readily supplied by the imposition of an income tax. The latter is the fairest and least burdensome of all taxes; and the fact that it was abolished and has not been reimposed only affords additional, to the sufficient, proof without it, that this country is in the hands of the plutocrats. The internal revenue tax, a tariff on luxuries, and an income tax would do away with any need for a tax on raw material and the necessities of life; and with the latter tax abolished the cost of living to the poor would be reduced about one half, and the market for American products be so enlarged that the demand for American labor and the price thereof be increased.

MANY A GOOD and true democrat will observe Thanksgiving Day to-morrow; but it is safe to say that not one of them will feel it at all incumbent upon him to offer thanks for the great defeat to which his party was recently led by the President, and the men who know what he had done persisted in re-nominating him.

WE HAVE received from the author, Mr. Edmund Flagg, now of Falls Church, a copy of his latest work, De Molai, some of the others being The Prime Minister, The Far West, Francis of Valois, The Howard Queen, and Venice. De Molai is a history of the rise and fall of the order of Knights Templar, as a military organization, rendered more attractive to certain people by romantic imaginings of some of the intrigues of the court of Philip the Fourth of France, the influence of which monarch upon Pope Clement caused the destruction of the most powerful secret organization that ever existed. It is a book that is instructive as well as interesting to the general reader, and one which it is supposed every knight templar will read when he hears it has been published.

The Forum for December has been received from its publishers in New York. Its contents are: Count Tolstoy's Religious Views, by Archbishop Farrar; The Price of Life, by Edward Atkinson; A Possible Revolution in Medicine, by Dr. Austin Flint; The New System of Naval Warfare, by Park Benjamin; Teaching the M. C. School Arts, by Prof. Davidson; A Simpler Southern Question, by George W. Cable; The South as a Field of Fiction, by Judge Tourgee; Prison Labor Competition, by Z. R. Brockway; A Reign of Law in Spelling, by Prof. March; To Marry or Not to Marry? by Janus Henri Browne; The Role of Chemistry in Civilization, by Prof. Crookes.

FROM WASHINGTON.

(Special Correspondence of the ALEX. GAZETTE.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 28, 1888.

The receipts from the internal revenue tax in Virginia for the last year amounted to $23,253,155, of which sum $1,406,786 was collected in the Alexandria district, of which Mr. Sheppard is the collector.

To-day for the first time since the election, all the democratic officers of the House have abandoned their former hope, and concede that the republicans will have the next House by a majority of from three to nine. Now that hope has deserted them, they like most all other democrats, attribute their trouble to the administration's civil service and mugwump policy.

The entire militia force of this city will have a drill and parade to-morrow, under General Ordway, the commander thereof. The drill will take place near the intersection of Pennsylvania avenue and 17th street. After the drill the troops will be reviewed by the President from the portico of the White House. They will then march down the avenue.

It is reported to-day that ex-civil service commissioner and present commissioner of the Indian Bureau, Oberly, will be again placed at the head of the civil service commission, though he was the most objectionable member of that body when a member of it. It is also said that all the government clerks in Washington, including those at the Government Printing Office, will be made subject to the civil service rules.

Mr. Shellbarger, when asked this morning if any thing had been done in the reported attempt to prevent the counting of the electoral vote of Virginia for Cleveland, now that the canvassing board of that State had made their return, replied that that matter had been left to his partner, Mr. Wilson, and that he, Shellbarger, didn't know what, if any thing, would be done; he did know, however, that as yet nothing had been done in the case.

As there was some informality about the appointment of the new democratic postmaster at Woodstock, Va., Senator Riddleberger's home, that officer had to come here to have it corrected. He went back home yesterday with his commission in his pocket. His office is now a Presidential appointment, and it is rumored that Senator Riddleberger may oppose its confirmation.

The inauguration committee don't know exactly what to do with an application they have received from a body of five hundred women in Denver, Col., for permission to form part of the inauguration procession.

As this in theory is a government of, by, and for the people, large ice water fountains are being erected in various parts of the Capitol for the free use of such of the theatrical swiftness as may visit that building hereafter.

A Virginia marriage took place at the Metropolitan Hotel here this morning, the principals being Mr. P. M. Edge, of Albemarle county, and Miss S. W. Gardner, of Loudoun county. The groom and his best man arrived here Monday night and started by railroad next day for the bride's home in the northwestern part of Loudoun county. As the distance from there to the court house at Leesburg, the nearest place for a license, was fourteen miles, and as the weather and roads were bad, and as the bride had to come here on her way to her new home, it was thought best for the whole party to come here; so, accompanied by her sister, the bride and the rest of the party arrived at the Metropolitan last night, when a license was obtained, and this morning the marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Meador. Mr. A. G. Sinclair, the popular clerk of the hotel, conducted the whole affair, and to the entire satisfaction of the parties most interested.

Among the strangers now in the city are Judge J. T. Harris, of Virginia, and his son. The latter will be married here to-day.

Telegraphic Briefs.

President Cleveland has telegraphed expressing the sorrow felt throughout this country for the death of the President of the Swiss Republic.

The skeleton of Jas. Robinson, a miner, who had been missing for some time, was found in a gulch, 60 miles from Helena, Montana, yesterday. The body had been devoured by wild beasts.

Numbers of New York brewery employees were locked out to-day because the boycott against one of the breweries was not raised. Hundreds of non-union men applied for the places of the locked out men, while all who renounced allegiance to the unions were retained.

A detective in the employ of Wells, Fargo & Co. is authority for the statement that the recent series of stage robberies in western California were the work of "Black Bart," the famous lone highwayman who robbed thirty-one stages before he was finally captured five years ago and sent to San Quentin. He was released from prison a few months since.

MR. BLACKBURN.—Senator Blackburn in a note to the Louisville Courier-Journal, says: "I shall always insist that Judge Rucker's conduct in making public a conversation had with the President in an interview procured for him by me was wholly inexcusable. His report of that conversation was entirely inaccurate. I regret, however, that the language I used in characterizing his conduct was so strong and emphatic and will say, upon reflection, that I should have said simply that I should have contradicted statements I knew to be incorrect and unjust to Mr. Cleveland and myself. As for myself, this matter is ended, and I have no doubt the public will be glad to know it."

COURT OF APPEALS YESTERDAY.—Ex parte William L. Royall. Order dismissing petition.

Morris against the Virginia State Insurance Company. Argued by Colonel John H. Guy for appellees and Judge Waller R. Staples for appellant, and submitted.

Gibson against Rixey. Dismissed by appellant.

Whitehead against Whitehead. Argued by Richard Walke, e. q., for appellant.

NO CONVENTION.—The State board of canvassers have counted the vote on the question of calling a constitutional convention. The returns showed that the vote was as follows: For convention, 3,698; against convention, 63,125.

SUICIDE.—Albert Thoms, aged twenty-five years, son of J. J. Thoms, ex-president of the Raleigh Cotton Exchange, committed suicide at Raleigh, yesterday. He went into a hardware store and asked to see a pistol and selected one, asking the clerk to load it. As soon as it was loaded he put the muzzle to his right temple and fired, the bullet passing entirely through the skull and carrying a large portion of the brain with it. He fell to the floor and death resulted in a few minutes. The young man had been very dissipated and his mind is said to have been affected.

Quick Trip.

QUEENSTOWN, Nov. 28.—The Ioman line steamer City of New York which arrived here to-day from New York, reached Queenstown six days and 20 hours from Sandy Hook, despite a heavy sea and opposing wind.

Revenue Receipts.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—The receipts from internal revenue to-day were $170,556, and from customs $668,218.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

There were no new cases of yellow fever at Jacksonville yesterday and no deaths. There was but one new case at Gainesville yesterday.

The Birmingham (Ala.) Age gives the particulars of the recent visit of New England capitalists to that section and their organization of the "Fort Payne Coal and Iron Company," with a capital stock of $5,000,000.

Hon. Wm. L. Wilson, the tariff reformer, has been re-elected to Congress from the second district of West Virginia by an increased majority, despite the fact that his district was flooded with republican money to accomplish his defeat.

The managers of the Augusta (Ga.) Exposition announce that visitors may go there without fear of extortion in any quarter. Hundreds of houses have offered lodging and meals for regular and transient boarders, ranging from one dollar a day upward.

Jay Gould, C. P. Huntington, Charles Francis Adams and other railroad magnates have formed a gigantic railroad trust, comprising all the roads between points west of line drawn through Chicago and Milwaukee on the east, St. Paul on the north, Colorado, New Mexico and Wyoming on the west, and Arkansas on the south.

Belgium is one of the most densely populated countries on the globe, and also one of the most prosperous. Its people emigrate less than those of any other continental State, the French alone excepted. The reasons why they do not emigrate and are prosperous appear to be the same—that they are industrious, steady workers, who make the most of their resources.

Democratic counsel have abandoned the idea of contesting the issuing of certificates to Congressional candidates in West Virginia who are elected on the face of the returns. If any contests are made they will be made before the House of Representatives. Application will be made to the Supreme Court to-day for an order to compel county courts where a recount is being had to go into the investigation of alleged fraud in the gubernatorial election.

COMMUNICATED.

A Good Suggestion.

I saw in the GAZETTE of 24th inst. a "List of Confederate Dead of Alexandria, Va.," eighty-eight (88) in number, to which a monument will soon be erected. In conversation recently with a prominent member of the monument association, I was informed that an effort had been made to purchase two (2) squares of ground in the N. W. section of the city and locate the monument there. I hope this plan has not been abandoned. There is nothing our city needs more than a public square, and one obtained through the efforts of those who survive their companions in arms, would be as much a monument to them and their dead heroes as the silent shaft to be erected. In my opinion this is the only opportunity our city will have of getting a public square during this generation. Let a subscription be opened at the store of Messrs. Wardfield and Hall and see what amount can be obtained, and easily our City Fathers may assist in the deficiency, if any. I will give one hundred dollars ($100) toward it.

Pro Bono Publico.

A BOMB FOR THE PRESIDENT.—The trial in Chicago of John Hronek, charged with conspiring to blow up the residences of Judges Gary and Grinnell, in that city, who conducted the trial of the anarchists, and of Police Inspector Bonfield began yesterday. Among the witnesses was a German named Schneider, who in the course of his testimony said that President Cleveland had a narrow escape when on his visit there. At that time Hronek had a bomb ready to throw at the presidential carriage, but was dissuaded by Schneider and Nikeland. Hronek's plans were to kill Bonfield first, but on talking it over with Capek decided to put an end to Judge Grinnell first. He said that if no better opportunity offered he would go into the courtroom and throw a bomb at the Judge. Then if the police tried to capture him he would use a bomb on the man. If it failed he had a revolver, and would shoot the officers and then himself. If he got a chance at Grinnell or Gary on the street he would use a knife.

PROGRESS IN CENTRAL ASIA.—As an illustration of progress in central Asia it may be mentioned that while, a few years ago the traveler was likely to be killed by the natives, he is now in greater danger of being smashed up in a railroad accident. A train on the Trans-Caspian road was upset a few weeks ago near Samarcand and five people killed. They happened to be train hands and Europeans, but had they been Mohammedan pilgrims, who now employ this modern method of expediting their journey to Mecca, there might have been a great outcry against this inhuman invention for killing off the faithful. The introduction of collisions on the Central Asian railroad will make tourists thoughtful, for such occurrences, remote from civilized comforts, have their great disadvantages.—New York Sun.

WHAT DYSPEPTICS SHOULD REMEMBER. One thing which all dyspeptics should bear in mind is this: without strong, healthy, wholesome blood in their veins they cannot be either well or happy, and it is from the food we eat that blood is made. About the most that medicine can do for you is to regulate the bowels and secretions, increase the appetite, and supply any constituent that may be absent from the blood, such as iron, etc. Over-eating is the most fruitful source of the dreadful mischief of indigestion. Young growing people need substantial diet to build up their frames; hard door workers require good and abundant food; middle aged people who do not work should eat most sparingly, and of a diet not too much mixed; the old need still less to sustain the system.—Cassell's Family Magazine.

WANTS A PENSION.—Governor Lee has received a letter from a lawyer in Bloomsburg, Pa., in which the writer says that an old Union soldier of his town was wounded in a cavalry engagement at Harford Church, in Stafford county, during the war, and claims a pension from Virginia. The old soldier says that he received his wound in a hand-to-hand engagement in that battle with Gov. Lee, and the latter dealt him a severe blow on the head with a sabre, which has incapacitated him for work. The Governor recollects several meales of the kind in which he was engaged during the war, but not this particular one.

Mr. Thos. McDonald, of 56 Albermarle street, Baltimore, Md., recommends "Salvation Ointment" with all his heart, for it rid him of rheumatism in his shoulder which he had been suffering with for many months. It cured him entirely.

ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES.

Foreign News.

LONDON, Nov. 28.—Valley Wiedmann, a German governess, has brought suit against Robert Horace Walpole, the heir presumptive to the Earldom of Orford, for 1,000 pounds damages for breach of promise and libel. She alleged that Walpole met her in Bulgaria. He made her an offer of marriage and then betrayed her. He afterwards disavowed her and now repudiates the paternity of her child.

Mr. John Bright has rallied considerably. Henry George will remain in England until December 9.

The report from Whitty that a life boat had been upset and its crew of 12 men drowned proves to be untrue. The boat reached the shore in safety. One of the crew, however, was drowned.

The Ioman Line steamer City of New York, which arrived at Queenstown to-day from New York, met the American whaler W. Martin on Thursday last. The whaler's crew were starving and asked for provisions. A supply was given them.

A Zuz bar dispatch says the German men of war Liszig and Sophie have proceeded to Bugamoyo on account of a report that fighting has broken out there.

MADRID, Nov. 28.—Count Benomar will be called upon to explain before the Council of State his reason for attempting to discharge the duties of the office of Minister at Berlin after he had been recalled. He will also be asked for an explanation concerning the charge that he had informed Senor Canoy de Castillo of the negotiations that had taken place between Germany and Spain.

BERLIN, Nov. 28.—During Emperor William's late hunting trip at Lutzingen he and his party bagged in one day 630 pieces of game. Most of them were pheasants and hares, but the bag also included a dozen stags and other big game.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 28.—It is reported that another great loan has been decided upon by the Government.

The Recent Gales.

HALIFAX, N. S., Nov. 28.—Reports from different parts of this province show that the gale of Sunday and Monday was felt all over Nova Scotia but so far no reports have been received of serious disasters in this region. The steamer Worcester, which sailed from Boston for this port on Saturday, has not since been heard from, and the steamer Vancouver, due on Sunday with Canadian mails from England, has not yet arrived. The weather continues thick and a heavy sea is running outside the harbor. Rumors are current that the Worcester and Vancouver have gone ashore, but so far as can be learned they are without foundation. The schooner Heloise, coal laden, from Sydney, C. B., for Charlottetown, P. E. I., is ashore at Wood's Island, in the Straits of Northumberland, but she will probably come off after being lightened.

The Lost Steamer Allentown.

COHASSET, Mass., Nov. 28.—All doubt concerning the supposed loss of the steamer Allentown is dispelled this morning. A visit to North Scituate beach shows the shore at that point to be covered with wreckage, consisting of fire buckets, tables, chairs and other furniture, all marked "Allentown." Capt. Brown, of the North Scituate life saving station, has made diligent inspection of the coast in search of bodies from the steamer, but has discovered none as yet. He advances the opinion that the ship foundered either on Davis or South East ledge, each of which is about a mile southeast of Minot's ledge. An attempt will be made to reach Minot's to-morrow morning for information concerning wrecks.

Explosion of a Gun.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., Nov. 28.—Wesley Middleton and his son, William Armandale and his son, an unknown cooper, all of Sellersburg, went coon hunting yesterday. They had but one shot gun between them. On freeing the coon the cooper took the gun and shot. It exploded, driving the breech pin through his eye into the brain and almost scalping young Middleton. The elder Armandale was knocked down by the gun barrel and his son's face horribly lacerated. The injured men were compelled to walk seven miles for medical treatment. Young Armandale will probably die.

Yellow Fever.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—Surgeon Porter, at Jacksonville, Fla., to-day telegraphed to Surgeon General Hamilton that as two frosts have occurred and the fever is principally confined to south Jacksonville, across the river, he recommends that restrictions to railroads to the city be removed so far as to permit persons to leave the city, but that unacclimated persons be not allowed to return until after disinfection.

Kilrain and Sullivan.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 28.—It was rumored last night that articles for a meeting had been signed by representatives of Kilrain and Sullivan. Kilrain was seen this morning and denied that the articles had been signed, but he admitted that there was some foundation for the rumor, and said that the fight, if it came off, would occur within ten weeks at some point near Chicago.

Diphtheria.

AITKEN, Minn., Nov. 28.—An epidemic of diphtheria has been raging here for two weeks. The citizens are alarmed over the result of the disease. The board of health has issued an order requiring all persons who have been exposed to isolate themselves, and ordering that all places of public meeting be closed. The public schools have been closed two weeks.

Murder in New York.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—David Hennessey, 20 years old, shot and instantly killed Hugh O'Keefe this morning in a saloon on 11th avenue.

Maryland's Congressmen.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 28.—The Governor issued certificates of election as Congressmen from Maryland to-day to Charles Q. Gibson, Herman E. Stump, Harry W. Rusk, Henry Stockbridge, jr., Barnes Compton and Louis E. McComas—four democrats and two republicans.

Death of Mrs. General Sherman.

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—The stock market opened with a fair degree of animation this morning while first prices were somewhat irregular, though generally higher, and the general list was dull. After some hesitation the market gathered strength and prices were brought up to small fractions above the opening figures. Later, however, all activity disappeared from the list and prices yielded, the early improvement being lost and generally something in addition. No further feature of a kind marked the dealings and at 11 o'clock the market was very dull and heavy, generally at small
